CHRISTIAN EDUCATION & YOUTH

It is the policy of the Christian Education & Youth committee to select and recruit Sunday School teachers, leaders for Nursery, Vacation Bible School, and Youth groups. The people selected teach Sunday School (children or adults), investigate and select curricula and materials for educational activities, provided youth programs for elementary, middle school and high school youth (including mission opportunities, Bible study, worship leadership, and fellowship), and provide Children's Church for elementary age children during worship. They also organize and facilitate youth trips, organize and participate in VBS and provide opportunities for children and youth participation in worship.
